Syllabus of Examination
 Effective from 1st March 2005

1. QUALIFICATIONS FOR ENTRY

The examination is open to persons who are 20 years of age or over at the date of examination and are acceptable to An Coimisiún as candidates. Applications received after the set quota of candidates for an examination has been reached must unfortunately be refused. Early application is therefore necessary in the case of all examination.

2. DATES OF EXAMINATION

Examinations usually take place in Ireland in May and in November or December. Examinations are held at venues in Britain, USA, Canada, Australia and New Zealand when requested and provided the projected number of candidates, in the opinion of the Udarás Scrúdaithe (Examination Authority), justifies examinations being held. The dates and venues of examinations outside of Ireland are decided by the Authority following consultation with the regional authorities. These dates and venues are then publicised by the Examination Authority.

3. APPLICATIONS AND FEES

Applications and fees must be sent to the Coimisiun Office or, in the case of examinations overseas, to a person nominated by the Examination Authority. The application form must be fully completed and signed by the applicant after he or she has carefully read this syllabus and enclosures in full. Fees, including deposits and balances, must be paid only by cheque, money order or bank draft payable to "An Coimisiún le Rincí Gaelacha". Payments may be in Irish currency (Euro currency from 1st January 2002) or in sterling or in US, Canadian, Australian or New Zealand dollars. The candidate's name and address must be written on the back of the cheque etc. in all cases. Applications should normally be lodged six months prior to an examination date but where there is likely to be pressure of numbers even earlier application is strongly advised. (See separate circular for details of examination dates, and venues, rates of candidates' fees and where applications and fees should be sent.)

While it is desirable that applicants pay the full fees at time of application they may, if they so wish, pay 50% of the fee with their applications and the remainder at least three months prior to the date of the examination or by such other date as the Examination Authority may decide.

4. WITHDRAWALS AND FORFEITURE OF FEES

- (1) Where a candidate, having been accepted for examination, withdraws the application three months or more prior to the examination date 50% of the examination fee will be forfeited.
- (2) Candidates who withdraw applications between three months and the date of the examination, or who fail to attend, will forfeit the full fee except in very exceptional circumstances.
- (3) Failure to attend, or late withdrawal, may result in candidates being disqualified from taking or retaking the examination for a period decided by the Examination Authority.
- (4) The periods referred to in sub-paragraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph, will be determined by the date on which notice of withdrawal is received by An Coimisiún, the Examination Authority or the examination organiser.

5. SECTIONS OF EXAMINATION

- (1) The examination consists of three sections as follows:-
 - (a) written céilí dancing test
 - (b) practical test in teaching céilí dancing
 - (c) oral Irish language test (optional if candidate lives outside Ireland).
- (2) All required sections must be attempted at the same examination (subject to the exception relating to the Irish language test in the case of persons living outside Ireland).
- (3) The requirements of each section are set out in detail in paragraphs 10-12 below.

6. REPEAT EXAMINATIONS

- (1) A candidate who fails to achieve a minimum of 50% in any section (excluding the oral Irish test) will be required to retake all sections of the examination at the next attempt.
- (2) Where candidates fail in any section of the examination at their first attempt they may attempt the examination again on two further occasions, retaking only those sections in which they have been unsuccessful provided that sub-paragraph 6(1) above does not apply to them.
- (3) A candidate who fails the examination on three occasions will be required to retake the full examination (except the oral Irish test if already passed) on any subsequent occasion.
- (4) The full examination must normally be completed within a period of five years, i.e., a candidate who has not completed the examination within five years of his or her first attempt must repeat the full examination after the lapse of five years but subject to (4) above. Because of the infrequency of examinations in Australia and New Zealand the provisions of this sub-paragraph may be varied at the discretion of An Coimisiún.
- (5) Six months must elapse before a candidate can resit any section of the exam. This will allow ample time to prepare properly.

7. REGULATIONS

- (1) In the written céilí dancing test
 - (a) Candidates are not permitted to use or have on their desks or tables or any papers, books or notebooks other than the answer papers (which may also be used for rough work) and the céilí question paper handed out by the examiners in charge. Neither may a candidate use electronic aids in lieu of written notes etc. The making of carbon copies of answer papers is not allowed.
 - (b) During these sections any conversation or other contact between candidates is strictly forbidden.
 - (c) Any rough work, diagrams, cancelled answers etc. made during these sections must not be retained by the candidates but instead must be either handed up to an examiner (but will not of course be taken into account in the marking of candidates' papers) or alternatively torn up in the presence of an examiner and placed in a receptacle provided for the purpose.
 - (d) Candidates are not permitted to leave the examination room and return unless with the permission of, and accompanied by, a supervising official.

- (2) The examination supervisors may at their sole discretion immediately disqualify from an examination any candidate adjudged guilty by them of any breach of the foregoing regulations in sub-paragraph (1) above.
- (3) Candidates take the examination at their own risk. Where a person suffers from a physical illness or disability, or is pregnant, allowance cannot be made for such illness, disability or condition in sections of the examination which require physical effort and where in some circumstances a candidate might be placed at risk.

Where a candidate suffers from an illness or handicap or is pregnant and still wishes to proceed with the examination he or she must indicate accordingly in the appropriate section of the application form. A medical certificate acceptable to the Examination Authority must be furnished indicating the nature of the illness, handicap or condition and certifying whether the applicant's medical adviser is satisfied that the applicant is capable of taking the practical sections of the examination as described by the applicant to the certifier without risk to himself or herself. Such information will be treated with total confidentiality. The final decision as to whether a candidate is allowed to participate in an examination lies with the examiners.

Failure to disclose an illness, incapacity or pregnancy may, if it later comes to light, result in the candidate concerned being permanently disqualified from taking any Coimisiún examination in the future.

- (4) Applications must be accompanied by the applicant's birth certificate and a recent passport photograph of the applicant signed on the back.

8. RESULTS

- (1) When the examination results are being issued, or shortly thereafter, a candidate who has been unsuccessful will receive a brief letter setting out the main reasons he or she has failed to pass a section or sections of the examination. Other than the official result sheet showing the marks achieved in each section this letter is the only communication a candidate will receive, directly or indirectly, in relation to the results of the examination. An Coimisiún, the Examination Authority or individual examiners will not enter into any further correspondence or discussion with a candidate or with anyone else acting on the candidate's behalf regarding an examination result.
- (2) The decision of the examiners concerning any candidate's result, when confirmed by the Examination Authority, is final.

9. AMENDMENTS TO EXAMINATION DOCUMENTATION

Examination fees change from time to time as do also the fees to repeat separate sections of the examination. These, together with other information relating to examination dates and venues, amendments to this syllabus and other relevant data, are published in a separate circular from time to time. Intending applicants must therefore ensure that both the examination syllabus they have and the additional circular are the up-to-date versions of those documents.

EXAMINATION SECTIONS IN DETAIL

10 Rince Céilí: Céilí Dancing - Written Test

Candidates are required to have a detailed knowledge of all dances in the handbook "Ar Rincí Foirne" (blue cover edition (2003)).

The question paper will consist of 16 questions (12 x 5 marks; 4 x 10 marks). The paper will be set in English and also in Irish if a candidate so requests at time of application, the paper may be answered in English or in Irish or in a combination of both languages.

The questions will cover all or most of the 30 dances in the handbook. It is possible for candidates to obtain partial marks for answers to questions where the answers are not fully correct. The time allowed for answering the paper is two hours.

As the test is a searching one candidates are advised to practise answering question papers. Sample question papers are available from the Coimisiún Office on request.

Qualifying mark: 70%

CANDIDATES WHO WISH TO TAKE THE WRITTEN TESTS IN THE IRISH LANGUAGE MUST NOTIFY THE OFFICE OF AN COIMISIÚN WHEN APPLYING TO TAKE THE EXAM.

11. Rince Céilí: Céilí Dancing - Teaching Test

Candidates are required to teach parts of different dances from the handbook "Ar Rincí Foirne" to a group of dancers. The dances and their parts will be chosen by the examiners.

Amongst the qualities taken into account in assessing a candidate's capabilities are:

- (1) Instruction (which should be clear, concise and suitable for those being taught):
- (2) Control of individuals and group:
- (3) Knowledge of dances and movements to be taught:
- (4) Voice (which should be clear and audible):
- (5) Ability to guide dancers through the movements:
- (6) Ability to note and correct mistakes by dancers.

In preparing for this section candidates are advised to study the handbook in close detail and get as much practice as possible in teaching the movements to a group of dancers.

As part of this section candidates may be required to demonstrate that they are capable of performing the basic steps required for Céilí dancing.
